CARN D.A.CH. Symposium 2021

TOPIC: Action Research: History – Present – Future

Now inviting submissions related to action research projects, concepts, research processes and results.

The Institute for Teaching and School Development at the Alpen-Adria-Universität Klagenfurt organizes the 9th CARN D.A.CH. conference. The conference is aimed at all scientists and practitioners who work in the field of action research. The conference will give insight into the experiences and findings of action research in various fields (e.g. education, science, society and community research, economy, art, technology), and will offer a space for exchange and learning, especially about current developments and challenges.

Registration is now open. The call for abstracts is open.

Dates/Location: January 22-23, 2021 in Vienna, Austria
